9/14/74

Sig e Tells 'All'

73 (AP)—Former President Nixon's
NEW Y , says a handwriting analyst.
signatur studied three examples of Mr. Nixon's Felix rst from shortly after Mr. Nixon took signatu he second several months ago, and the office before he resigned from office.
third s us capitals show pride, but the long thread
"Tr of his name shows he wants to leave room
at
to mar r," Lehmann said of the first signature. "The strivin recognition and ambition are overpowering
in his dwriting."
The nd sample:
"He es from an appearance of clarity to being wishy-w hy . . . But in this signature there is still hope."
And hmann's analysis of the third signature:
"The s nothing left. Only a shadow. His ambitions are ove A shapeless stroke, ambiguity. A disintegration of ersonality, a person sinking within himself."